

Glenn Miller, Jimmy Dorsey Bands Coming to Tropics in July

Coupla big bands coming to Georgie Rudin's Tropics next month:

One night only — Monday, July 6—The Glenn Miller orchestra, in concert, directed by and featuring Buddy De Franco.

Also one-nighting it — Monday July 20 — Lee Castle, trumpet tootling conductor, and his "Fabulous Jimmy Dorsey orchestra."

Both bands will be staged in the Tropics' main theater-restaurant where there is a mini-dance floor.

Still at the Tropics — the nutty Cherry Wainer Duo who combine comedy with excellent organ-drums music.

Cherry is the bouncy pixie. She plays fine electronic organ and gives her drumming partner what-for during some of the duo's duels. That's right . . . duels. Not duets.

They're a sight for sore eyes and a delight for sore ears. With more bounce to the ounce from Cherry. . . . .

Cherry